

Industry Forum 2025: Your gateway to the Digital Future

The CADENAS Industry Forum is a leading event for innovation and networking in the world of Industry 4.0. With technology evolving so quickly, keeping up with the latest trends and ideas is more important than ever. This forum offers a valuable mix of expert insights, practical solutions, and opportunities to connect with industry peers.

Participation in the Industry Forum is a strategic investment in the future viability of your company. It offers the chance to secure decisive competitive advantages, open up new business opportunities and optimize processes.

That's why you should attend:

Exclusive insights and competitive advantages

- Early access to the latest technologies before market launch
- Focus on AI and its influence on strategic decisions

Connect and collaborate

- International platform for new collaborations and business relationships
- Targeted networking opportunities at the exclusive evening event

Optimize your processes

- Practical solutions for cost optimization in engineering
- Tailored advice on company-specific challenges
- Practical demonstrations of software solutions

Learn from the best

- Over 30 renowned speakers from market leaders, innovative SMEs, and associations
- Broad spectrum of industry knowledge and first-hand best practices

Unique event format

- Inspiring environment in the WWK Arena Augsburg
- Close link between lectures and exhibitor area

For exhibitors

- Presence of well-known companies with a pull effect
- Optimal location close to the catering and presentations
- Direct product demonstrations and customer contact